Decisions taken by the Governing Council of the ECB (in addition to decisions setting interest rates)

November 2023

Market operations

Acceptance of Scope Ratings GmbH as external credit assessment institution (ECAI)

On 2 November 2023 the Governing Council approved the acceptance of Scope Ratings GmbH as an ECAI for the purposes of the Eurosystem credit assessment framework, following an in-depth technical assessment by the relevant Eurosystem and European System of Central Banks (ESCB) committees, in particular the Risk Management Committee (RMC), in line with the Eurosystem application process and acceptance criteria. The Governing Council also approved the eligibility of Scope Ratings' ABS ratings for Eurosystem monetary policy operations purposes once compliance with the Eurosystem disclosure requirements has been established. The process of integrating Scope Ratings into the Eurosystem IT infrastructure was initiated immediately and is likely to take several months. A related press release is available on the ECB's website.

Macroprudential policy and financial stability

Financial Stability Review – November 2023

On 15 November 2023 the Governing Council held an exchange of views on euro area financial stability issues on the basis of the November 2023 edition of the Financial Stability Review and authorised its publication on the ECB's website. In addition to providing an overview of key financial stability vulnerabilities in the euro area, this edition includes two special features. The first examines banks' engagement in maturity transformation, their reliance on derivatives to mitigate the interest rate risk stemming from their maturity mismatch, and the implications for their net interest margins. The second assesses risks that could arise in the context of turning residential and commercial real estate cycles. The Review is available on the ECB's website.

Market infrastructure and payments

Updated Eurosystem retail payments strategy

On 15 November 2023 the Governing Council approved an update to the Eurosystem's retail payments strategy which reflects external developments that have affected the payment ecosystem since the initial adoption of the strategy in 2019, in particular the continued shift of consumer behaviour towards electronic payments, the growing role of big tech in retail payment solutions, and the increased importance of strengthening the resilience of the retail payments infrastructure. The updated strategy, which also takes into account the digital euro, given the considerable progress made by the Eurosystem on this project, is available on the ECB's website together with a related press release.

Request by the Banca d'Italia to provide a local instant payments system to the Bank of Albania

On 17 November 2023 the Governing Council approved a request by the Banca d'Italia to enter, on behalf of the four central banks operating the TARGET Services, into negotiations with the central bank of Albania with a view to establishing a local instant payments system in Albania hosted on a new infrastructure operated by the Banca d'Italia. This approval includes safeguards to ensure a full separation from the TARGET Instant Payment Settlement (TIPS) service delivered by the Eurosystem.

Rescheduled launch date of the Eurosystem Collateral Management System (ECMS)

On 29 November 2023 the Governing Council approved the rescheduling of the launch date of the ECMS from 8 April 2024 to 18 November 2024. This will allow time for additional testing that will ensure greater system stability and user readiness and facilitate a smooth migration to the new platform. A related communication is available on the ECB's website.

December 2022. As decided by the Governing Council in July 2022, the ODC is co-chaired by the ECB and one of the Eurosystem national central banks.

International and European cooperation

ESCB cooperation programme with African central banks to strengthen financial stability, resilience and governance

On 2 November 2023 the Governing Council, with the benefit of observations from the General Council, endorsed the cooperation programme between the European System of Central Banks (ESCB) and African central banks and the related contractual documentation. This two-year programme, coordinated by the Deutsche Bundesbank and the Banque de France, involves eight ESCB national central banks and the ECB on the EU side, and up to 12 beneficiary institutions from Africa. The European Commission will provide the funding under the Neighbourhood, Development and International Cooperation Instrument. More details will be provided in due course as the programme progresses.

Updated Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) on cooperation and exchange of information between the ECB and the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA)

On 20 November 2023 the Governing Council approved an update of the 2016 MoU on cooperation and exchange of information between the ECB and ESMA to cover ESMA data needs stemming from its new supervisory mandates and the ECB's data needs with regard to the performance of its central banking tasks. The Supervisory Board was consulted regarding the parts of the MoU that are relevant for the ECB's supervisory tasks.

Banknotes and coins

Possible themes for the third series of euro banknotes

On 29 November 2023 the Governing Council took note of the results of the surveys run on behalf of the ECB and by the Eurosystem during the summer 2023 on possible themes for the third series of euro banknotes and, based on the preferences of the European public, selected "European culture" and "Rivers and birds" as the two possible themes. The Governing Council also approved the
