

PRESS RELEASE

Madrid, 31 October 2018

@BancoDeEspana launches on Twitter

Today, the Banco de España takes a step towards greater participation in social media, by launching an official account on Twitter (@BancoDeEspana). This communication channel will strengthen the institution's commitment to transparency and bring it closer to the general public.

Initially, @BancoDeEspana will publish news content on our activities (press releases, statistics, public speeches, analytical articles, conferences, etc.) and will also include other useful information on issues such as financial education or employment and training.

In the words of the Governor of the Banco de España, Pablo Hernández de Cos: "We're aware that we have been slow in opening this channel, but hope to gain experience quickly and thus reaffirm our commitment to transparency and communication, which are essential aspects of a modern central bank's activities".
