Data for the current account of the euro area

According to preliminary results for 2018 as a whole, the current account recorded a surplus of €343 billion (3.0% of euro area GDP), compared with one of €362 billion (3.2% of euro area GDP) in 2017. This decrease was due to a lower surplus for goods (down from €340 billion to €289 billion) and a marginally higher deficit for secondary income (up from €146 billion to €147 billion), which were only partly offset by higher surpluses for services (up from €102 billion to €121 billion) and primary income (up from €66 billion to €80 billion).

Notes: For assets, a positive (negative) number indicates net purchases (sales) of non-euro area instruments by euro area investors. For liabilities, a positive (negative) number indicates net sales (purchases) of euro area instruments by non-euro area investors.

According to preliminary results for 2018 as a whole, in direct investment, euro area residents recorded net investments in non-euro area assets of €1 billion, a significant decrease from net investments of €262 billion in 2017 (see Chart 2 and Table 2). At the same time, non-residents recorded net disinvestments in euro area assets of €298 billion, following net investments of €137 billion in 2017.

In portfolio investment, net acquisitions of foreign debt securities by euro area residents decreased to €116 billion in 2018, from €463 billion in 2017. Over the same period, a shift was recorded in investment activity by euro area residents in foreign equity from net purchases in 2017 (€178 billion) to net disinvestments in 2018 (€9 billion). Non-residents reduced their net purchases of euro area equity to €138 billion in 2018 (from a record high of €508 billion in 2017). At the same time, their net sales of euro area debt securities decreased from €133 billion in 2017 to €100 billion in 2018.

Data for the financial account of the euro area

In other investment, euro area residents' net acquisitions of foreign assets slightly increased to €247 billion in 2018 (compared with €241 billion in 2017), while net incurrences of liabilities increased to €338 billion, from €229 billion in 2017.

Notes: MFI net external assets as reported in the consolidated MFI balance sheet items. B.o.p. transactions refer only to transactions of non-MFI residents of the euro area. Financial transactions are shown as liabilities net of assets. "Other" includes financial derivatives, other investment and statistical discrepancies.

The monetary presentation of the balance of payments (see Chart 3) shows that the net external assets of euro area MFIs increased by €69 billion in 2018. This increase was mainly driven by the euro area's current and capital accounts surplus and, to a lesser extent, by non-MFIs' net inflows in portfolio investment equity. This was partly offset by euro area non-MFIs' net outflows in direct investment and portfolio investment debt securities.

In December 2018 the Eurosystem's stock of reserve assets increased to €719.1 billion, from €700.4 billion in the previous month (see Table 3). This increase (€18.7 billion) was mainly driven by positive price changes (€16.8 billion) and to a lesser extent by net acquisitions of assets (€3.2 billion), which were only partly offset by negative exchange rate changes (€1.3 billion).
