HM King Felipe of Spain visits the ECB

HM King Felipe of Spain visited the European Central Bank (ECB) today.

HM King Felipe met Christine Lagarde, President of the ECB, and the other members of the ECB's Executive Board, as well as Andrea Enria, Chair of the Supervisory Board, for an exchange of views on current issues.

The King also met the ECB's Spanish staff members and visited the Memorial at the Frankfurt Grossmarkthalle located within the ECB's premises.

The First Vice-President of the Government of Spain and Minister for the Economy and Digital Transformation, Nadia Calviño Santamaría, the Minister for Foreign Affairs, European Union and Cooperation, José Manuel Albares Bueno, and the Governor of the Banco de España, Pablo Hernández de Cos, accompanied HM King Felipe during his visit.
