- Geographic counterparts: largest bilateral current account surpluses vis-à-vis United Kingdom (€172 billion) and Switzerland (€77 billion), largest deficit vis-à-vis China (€83 billion)
- International investment position showed net liabilities of €180 billion (1.5% of euro area GDP) at end of 2021

Current account

The current account surplus of the euro area increased to €292 billion (2.4% of euro area GDP) in 2021, up from €219 billion (1.9% of GDP) in 2020 (Table 1). This increase mainly reflected larger surpluses for services (up from €6 billion to €96 billion) and primary income (up from €35 billion to €63 billion) and, to a lesser extent, a reduction in the deficit for secondary income (down from €163 billion to €158 billion). These developments were partly offset by a decline in the surplus for goods (down from €341 billion to €290 billion).

The increase in the surplus for services in 2021 was due to larger surpluses for telecommunication, computer and information services (up from €101 billion to €127 billion), transport services (up from €5 billion to €16 billion) and travel services (up from €11 billion to €19 billion) as well as due to a reduction in the deficit for other business services (down from €103 billion to €47 billion). Conversely, a lower surplus was recorded for insurance, pension and financial services (down from €15 billion to €10 billion) and the deficit for other services increased (up from €24 billion to €29 billion).

Euro area quarterly balance of payments and international investment position:
fourth quarter of 2021

The increase in the primary income surplus in 2021 was driven by a larger surplus for investment income (up from €5 billion to €37 billion). This reflected larger surpluses for direct investment income (up from €26 billion to €38 billion), portfolio debt income (up from €41 billion to €50 billion) and other investment income (up from €7 billion to €12 billion). Moreover, a smaller deficit was recorded for portfolio equity (down from €73 billion to €67 billion).

countries (€129 billion, down from €186 billion). The largest bilateral deficits were recorded vis-à-vis China (€83 billion, up from €80 billion), EU Member States and EU institutions outside the euro area (€30 billion, down from €51 billion) and offshore centres (€27 billion, down from €108 billion).

The most significant geographic changes in 2021 relative to 2020 in the components of the current account were as follows. In goods the deficit vis-à-vis China increased from €93 billion to €112 billion, while larger surpluses were recorded vis-à-vis the United States (up from €163 billion to €182 billion) and the EU Member States and EU institutions outside the euro area (up from €40 billion to €61 billion). Moreover, the goods balance vis-à-vis the residual group of other countries turned from a surplus of €83 billion to a deficit of €1 billion. In services the deficit vis-à-vis offshore centres declined strongly (down from €90 billion to €27 billion), while the surplus vis-à-vis the residual group of other countries increased from €76 billion to €99 billion. In primary income a larger deficit was recorded vis-à-vis the United States (up from €7 billion to €36 billion), while the surpluses widened vis-à-vis the United Kingdom (up from €14 billion to €30 billion) and Switzerland (up from €9 billion to €24 billion). In secondary income the deficit vis-à-vis the EU Member States and EU institutions outside the euro area decreased slightly from €96 billion to €90 billion.

Data for the net international investment position of the euro area

The decline in net liabilities of €92 billion reflected large but partly offsetting changes in the various investment components. Larger net assets were recorded for portfolio debt (up from €1.3 trillion to €1.6 trillion), while net liabilities remained stable in portfolio equity (€3.4 trillion). Conversely, net assets in direct investment declined (down from €2.3 trillion to €2.2 trillion), while net liabilities increased in other investment (up from €1.3 trillion to €1.5 trillion).

Data for the international investment position of the euro area

The developments in the euro area's net international investment position in the fourth quarter of 2021 were mainly driven by positive net flows owing to exchange rate changes and, to a lesser extent, transactions, which were partly offset by negative net price changes and other volume changes (Table 2 and Chart 3).

The increase in net assets for portfolio debt was mainly driven by positive net flows for transactions and exchange rate changes (Table 2). The decline in net assets for direct investment resulted from negative net flows in other volume changes (mostly reclassifications) and price changes. The stability in net liabilities for portfolio equity was mainly due to positive net flows in other volume changes
