December 2017

Market operations

Eligibility of unsecured bank bonds

On 13 December 2017 the Governing Council decided on changes to the collateral eligibility criteria applicable to unsecured bank bonds, i.e. unsecured debt instruments issued by credit institutions, investment firms or entities closely linked to them. A press release providing more detailed information on the amended criteria, which will take effect from the entry into force of the regular update of the General Documentation (expected in the first quarter of 2018) , is available on the ECB's website.

Market infrastructure and payments

Launch of two major projects in the field of large-value payments and collateral management

On 6 December 2017 the Governing Council approved the launch of two major projects in the field of market infrastructure and payments expected to go live in November 2021 and November 2022, respectively. The first project will consolidate the Eurosystem's real-time gross settlement system TARGET2 and the securities settlement platform TARGET2-Securities (T2S) and will provide market participants with enhanced liquidity management procedures. The second project will develop a Eurosystem Collateral Management System, which will provide a harmonised platform for collateral operations across the Eurosystem and replace a number of functions of existing national systems. A related press release is available on the ECB's website.

T2S financial statements for 2016

On 7 December 2017 the Governing Council approved the 2016 T2S annual financial statements and their publication on the ECB's website. This annual publication, which started at the initiative of the Market Infrastructure Board (MIB) with the 2015 annual financial statements, provides information on the financial situation of T2S from year to year.

Statistics

Public consultation on a new euro unsecured overnight interest rate

On 22 November 2017 the Governing Council approved the launch of a public consultation on the high level features of a new euro unsecured overnight interest rate. Through the consultation which runs until 12 January 2018, the ECB aims to collect the views of stakeholders on the main features of the rate and its publication timing. The public consultation documentation is available on the ECB's website.

Guideline on the procedures for the collection of granular credit and credit risk data

On 27 November 2017 the Governing Council adopted Guideline ECB/2017/38 on the procedures for the collection of granular credit and credit risk data ("Anacredit"). This legal act sets out the procedures supporting the collection of these data aimed at establishing a common granular analytical credit database, which will comprise credit data from all Member States whose currency is the euro. AnaCredit will support the Eurosystem, the European System of Central Banks and the European Systemic Risk Board in the performance of their tasks, including monetary policy analysis and monetary policy operations, risk management, financial stability surveillance as well as macroprudential policy and research, and banking supervision. The Guideline is available on the ECB's website.

Issuance of banknotes and coins

Legal acts in relation to the approval of the volume of coin issuance

On 8 December 2017 the Governing Council adopted Decision ECB/2017/39 amending Decision (EU) 2016/2164 on the approval of the volume of coin issuance in 2017 and Decision ECB/2017/40 on the approval of the volume of coin issuance in 2018. Furthermore, the Governing Council adopted Decision ECB/2017/41 amending Decision (EU) 2015/2332 on the procedural framework for the approval of the volume of euro coin issuance. In order to streamline the approval procedure, Decision ECB/2017/41 provides for the delegation of future approvals of the volume of coin issuance by Member States to the Executive Board of the European Central Bank.
