Eurosystem provision of reserve management services in euro

On 3 May 2018 the Governing Council adopted Guideline ECB/2018/14 on the Eurosystem's provision of reserve management services in euro to central banks and countries located outside the euro area and to international organisations. The revisions introduced by the Guideline aim to implement various operational changes, clarify some aspects in relation to the services and address some suggestions received from the customers of the Eurosystem reserve management services (ERMS). The Guideline is available on the ECB's website.

Name of the new ECB unsecured overnight rate

On 16 May 2018 the Governing Council decided that the new ECB unsecured overnight rate would be called ESTER (euro short-term rate). This interest rate, which will be produced before 2020, will complement existing benchmark rates produced by the private sector and serve as a backstop reference rate. More detailed information related to this new rate is available on the ECB's website.

Financial stability and supervision

Financial Stability Review May 2018

On 16 May 2018 the Governing Council authorised the publication of the "Financial Stability Review – May 2018", which reviews the main sources of risk and vulnerability for the stability of the euro area financial system and provides a comprehensive analysis of the capacity of the euro area financial system to absorb shocks. It is due to be published on the ECB's website on 24 May 2018.
