

PRESS RELEASE

Madrid, 9 October 2012

The Banco de España receives a delegation from the US Senate

The Governor of the Banco de España, Luis M. Linde, today met a delegation from the US Senate led by the Chairman of the Senate Committee on Finance (SFIN), Senator Max Sieben Baucus.

The group will be holding a series of meetings this week with economic authorities and business representatives from several European countries.

The delegation and members of the US Embassy's economic team in Spain will, in conjunction with the Governor and various representatives of DG Economics, Statistics and Research and DG Operations, analyse the European sovereign debt crisis, which is having a strong impact on the US economy and financial system, and the measures adopted by the EU authorities to address this crisis.
