The Banco de España congratulates José Manuel Campa on his appointment as EBA Chairperson

The Banco de España welcomes the appointment of José Manuel Campa as Chairperson of the European Banking Authority (EBA). Campa was chosen by the EBA Board of Supervisors from a shortlist of candidates compiled by the EBA Selection Committee.

The EBA reported its decision today to the Chairman of the European Parliament's Committee on Economic and Monetary Affairs (ECON), in accordance with current legislation.

José Manuel Campa, who is currently the Global Head of Regulatory Affairs at Banco Santander, will be convened to a public hearing before the ECON Committee. Unless the European Parliament should express its objection within the term of one month, Campa will succeed Andrea Enria as Chairperson of the EBA for a renewable mandate of five years.
