PRESS RELEASE

Madrid, 1 June 2022

The Banco de España signs up for Open Gov Week with 42 workshops in Madrid and the branch offices

The Banco de España is taking part for the first time in Open Gov Week, a global initiative sponsored by the Open Government Partnership (Open Gov Week) and organised in Spain by the Sub-Directorate General of Open Government of the Ministry of Finance, to be staged from 27 June to 1 July.

This year, the Banco de España has organised 42 on-site workshops showcasing the institution, its publications and the workings of the Central Credit Register (CCR), explaining how to join the Banco de España, teaching participants how to recognise a genuine banknote and exploring a range of financial literacy-related aspects. The sessions will take place at the Banco de España's Madrid headquarters and its branch offices in Barcelona, Bilbao, Las Palmas de Gran Canaria, Malaga, Murcia, Seville, Santa Cruz de Tenerife and Valladolid and will be open to the public, subject to registration and capacity.

The complete programme of activities and registration forms can be found on the Banco de España's website. The deadline for registration is 14:00 on 15 June 2022.

This initiative aims to bridge the gap between the public administration and the general public, based on the principles of open government: transparency, accountability, civic participation, public integrity and collaboration.
