60TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE BANCO DE ESPAÑA STATISTICS

In 2020 the Banco de España statistics celebrated their 60th anniversary, as the Statistical Bulletin was published in March 1960 for the first time. This and other significant milestones of the Banco de España's statistics were included in an infographic that was made for the occasion:

Figure 2.2 60 YEARS OF BANCO DE ESPAÑA STATISTICS

1960	1983	1984	1991	1992
First publication of statistical series The Statistical Bulletin was published for the first time in 1960, with around 300 series	Creation of the Central Balance Sheet Data Office Publishes economic and financial data of non- financial corporations	The dissemination of financial accounts commences They are the financial side of the National Accounts	The publication of public debt statistics begins A key variable for monitoring the Excessive Deficit Protocol	The Bank publishes the Balance of of Payments Together with the Balance of Payments, the Banco de España publishes the Internationa Investment Position
1999	2004	2009	2019	2020
The publication of Statistical information on the Internet begins Since 2008, data are only published electronically, through the Banco de España website	Publication of the first wave of the Spanish Survey of Household Finances Provides detailed information on the income, assets, debts and spending of Spanish households	The BIEST application is launched BIEST provides access to the database containing published statistical series	Organisation by subject on the Statistics webpage and new data presentation formats. BELab Data presentation formats are expanded: "In brief" leaflets, interactive graphs and dashboards (BExplora). The data laboratory (BELab) was created to provide access for researchers to microdata	Application for access from mobile devices