240 YEARS OF HISTORY OF THE BANCO DE ESPAÑA 1782-2022

The Banco Nacional de San 1782 Carlos, predecessor of the Banco de España, was founded The Banco de España adopted 1856 its current name The Banco de España was 1874 granted a monopoly on peseta issuance The Banking Law was enacted, 1921 transforming the Banco de España into a central bank The Banco de España was 1962 nationalised and reorganised, and was granted various monetary policy powers The Banco de España was granted supervisory powers 1971 for the first time The Law of Autonomy of the 1994 Banco de España was passed The Banco de España joined the 1998 European System of Central Banks The Banco de España joined the European Single Supervisory 2014 Mechanism The Banco de España adopted 2020 its first Strategic Plan 2024

TIMELINE