

Second Conference on Financial Stability

CALL FOR PAPERS

Madrid, 3-4 June 2019

Banco de España in cooperation with CEMFI organizes a series of biennial conferences to promote the research and discussion of topics related to financial stability and macroprudential policy among academics, practitioners, and policy-makers.

The second conference will be held at the Banco de España's headquarters in Madrid on 3-4 June 2019. Agustín Carstens, General Manager of the Bank for International Settlements, will be the keynote speaker, pending final confirmation. Pablo Hernández de Cos, Governor of the Banco de España, will open the conference.

The program committee invites submissions of theoretical and empirical papers related to financial stability issues. Papers with a focus on the analytical frameworks and tools for macro-prudential policies to address systemic risk are especially welcome. Specific examples of relevant topics include:

- Interactions between micro- and macro-prudential tools
- Impact assessment analysis of macro-prudential tools
- Macro-prudential policy beyond regulated banks
- Governance aspects of macro-prudential policy
- Digital banking, bank competition, and financial stability
- Regulatory complexity and financial stability
- Stress testing

The papers to be presented at the conference will be selected by a scientific committee formed by Óscar Arce (Banco de España), Steven Ongena (University of Zurich), José Luis Peydró (Universitat Pompeu Fabra), Rafael Repullo (CEMFI), Hélène Rey (London Business School), Tano Santos (Columbia Business School), Jesús Saurina (Banco de España), Isabel Schnabel (University of Bonn), and Javier Suárez (CEMFI).

Authors will be invited to publish their contributions in the Financial Stability Review of the Banco de España, but this will not be a requirement.

Complete manuscripts should be sent in pdf format to FSC2019@bde.es. The deadline for submissions is 1 February 2019.

Authors of accepted papers will be notified by 22 March 2019. Travel and accommodation expenses of academic speakers will be reimbursed.
