

BANCO DE ESPAÑA

Joint CEPR and VII Banco de España
Economic History Seminar
Madrid, 8 October 2021

9:00 – 9:10	Welcome address and chair: Oscar Arce (Director General for Economics, Statistics and Research, Banco de España)
9:45 – 10:40	FIRST SESSION Chair: Pablo Martin-Aceña (University of Alcalá) One hundred years of CIP deviations Olivier Accominotti (London School of Economics and CEPR) Jason Cen David Chambers Victor Degorce The aftermath of sovereign debt crises: a narrative approach Rui Esteves (Graduate Institute and CEPR) Jason Lennard Sean Kenny
10:40 – 11:00	Break
11:00 – 12:30	SECOND SESSION Chair: Stephen Broadberry (Oxford University) Revisiting the Cobden-Chevalier network trade and welfare effects Jacopo Timini (Banco de España) Measuring the carnation revolution: a synthetic control analysis of economic crisis in Portugal (1974-1980) Luciano Amaral (Nova school of business and economics) Bruno Lopes Marques João Pereira dos Santos
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch break

13:30 – 14:15

THIRD SESSION

Chair: Eva Ortega (Banco de España)

Local institutions and human capital formation in pre-industrial economies: evidence from the former kingdom of Valencia

Alfonso Díez-Minguela (Universitat de València) | Francisco J. Beltrán Tapia
| Alicia Gómez-Tello | Julio Martínez-Galarraga | Daniel A. Tirado-Fabregat

14:15 – 14:30

Break

14:30 – 16:00

FOURTH SESSION

Chair: Soledad Núñez (Banco de España)

The economic consequences of the opium war

Wolfgang Keller (University of Colorado and CEPR) | Carol H. Shiue

Despotism in Africa: centralized or decentralized?

Jutta Bolt (University of Groningen and CEPR) | Leigh Gardner | Jennifer
Kohler | Jack Paine | James A. Robinson

Farewell conclusions