

VI BANCO DE ESPAÑA SEMINAR IN ECONOMIC HISTORY
Madrid, October 8th 2020

The Bank of Spain cordially invites you to assist and participate in the VI Seminar in Economic History, which will be held next October 8th 2020, in its central headquarters in Madrid, c/ Alcalá, 48.

The Seminar aims to bring together scholars from all over the world to discuss current academic work. The organizers encourage the presentation of papers that contribute to the progress of the discipline, providing new insights in all historical periods and areas of investigation. Any presentation of a proposal of new research in the field of Spanish, and International economic history, will be welcomed.

Scholars are invited to submit their proposals before June 15th to conferencias@bde.es. Authors of accepted papers will be notified by the end of June. Submission of full texts is preferred, although extended abstracts may also be considered.

The final version of the selected papers must be submitted to the Bank of Spain before September 10th, to allow time for distribution.

We are looking forward to receiving your submissions and welcoming you to Madrid. Please feel free to distribute the call for papers to other interested researchers.

Seminar Organizers/Scientific Committee

Pablo Martín-Aceña. Universidad de Alcalá
Galo Nuño. Banco de España
Eva Ortega. Banco de España
María Ángeles Pons. Universidad de Valencia